

Uncle Phang

Uncle Lai

Uncle Phang, used to work as a Chef in Majestic Hotel, KL & Uncle Lai was a banker. Due to unfortunate circumstances, these were taken from them. Not having anyone to care for them, they usually walked around town looking for charitable organizations to provide food for them. We have been encouraging them and giving them hope, to show them that there is a better future for them. It paid off, when the both of them began to hunger for God more in their lives and asked for bibles. Now they are very open to hearing about Christ.
